

ASH GREEN WEEKLY NEWS

PRIMARY SCHOOL

Welcome Back!!

What a fantastic first week back at school. The children all look so smart in their uniforms and their attitude to learning has been excellent. Although it has been a short week, a lot of learning has already been started and we all look forward to getting stuck in to the first full week on Monday.

Celebration Assemblies

Thanks to all the family members who joined us this morning for Celebration Assemblies. It was lovely to have parents and carers back in school to celebrate achievement and see at first hand the beautiful behavior of our children.

Each week, KS2 Celebration Assembly will be at 9.05 and Reception and KS1 at 9.30.

You should be notified by Thursday if your child has won an award that week.

Thank you for all your support.

HM THE QUEEN

We were all saddened to hear of the passing of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth yesterday afternoon.

Clearly, she has been the monarch for all of most people's lifetimes and therefore a constant in our lives.

During our assemblies this morning, we spoke a little about her life and took some time to reflect.

For many of our children, the Queen's death will have little impact but – as we had celebrated her 70 years on the throne only a few months ago – we have given the children chance to talk to adults in school about how they feel if they would like to.

We will await further information on details in the lead up to the Queen's funeral. If it is to be held on a weekday then we understand that will declared a Bank holiday. As soon as we have further detail we will let you know.

Say Cheese

The school photographer will be at both sites on Tuesday 20th September.

For the first time since the pandemic, we will be able to return to family photos. Watch out for further details on arrangements for the day, including entrances for families on that morning.

Family photos will take place in the Hall before school and then children will have photos taken in class groups through the day.
